2. DSPS AWARDED GRANT

The DSPS program has recently been awarded a grant for online/distance education closed captioning through the State Chancellor's Office in the amount of $22,742. The funds will be used to purchase closed captioning equipment and to caption some of the online courses currently being offered. Kudos to Brian Josephson, of the Alternate Media/High Tech Center and Dr. Yvonne Powell, DSPS Specialist for their efforts in facilitating the grant application.

3. CUYAMACA STUDENT AWARDED TWIN AWARD

Cuyamaca College Alumna Robyn Badger was awarded one of two, Tribute to Women and Industry (TWIN), awards by the Zoological Society of San Diego in May. Robyn is currently Project Manager/Architecture and Planning for the San Diego Zoological Society. She has served on highly successful and award-winning projects for the Zoological Society including Gorilla Tropics, Bonobo Road, Hippo Beach and Heart of the Zoo III exhibits. Robyn was featured in the ZooView Zoological Society of San Diego May 2005 Newsletter.

4. OUTREACH 2005

San Diego County Fair

Over 1,000 Fall Schedules and college promotional items were distributed at the recent San Diego County Fair. Cuyamaca College staff and ambassadors were well received and due to the overwhelming interest, a second table was requested for the final two days of the fair. Kudos to Jim Hannibal, Marcella Brown, Ronnie Simpson, Diane Kew, Alan Ridley, Dave Rogers, Ingrid Tarikas and Dalia Alshamas for their outreach efforts.

National Indian Justice Center

On July 9th, Cuyamaca College was invited to participate in the 6th Annual Conference for Native American Families, entitled "For All My Relations." The week-long event culminated with a "College Day for Native Americans" attended by 200 Native American students and their families. Prospective students were provided with information about upcoming classes; as well as information that might be of particular interest, such as the Kumeyaay Language class.

Kudos to Maggie Gonzales for being an instrumental liaison for both events!
