

COVID-19 CUYAMACA TRANSFER CENTER Q & A

FALL 2020 TRANSFER APPLICATIONS

Q: I applied to SDSU. Now what? A: Check out SDSU website

<https://admissions.sdsu.edu/transfers/applied>

● Keep in mind that you need to check your SDSU WebPortal for updates to keep your admissions moving forward. Applicants will need to follow the instructions sent by SDSU. All directions will be found in your portal.

● SDSU Admissions Next Steps to Enroll: <https://admissions.sdsu.edu/transfers/admitted>

Q: I was denied from SDSU. Can I appeal? A: Yes. Students are encouraged to appeal if they feel they were denied in error. Please email SDSU admissions@sdsu.edu to find out the exact reason for your denial. Make sure to include your full name and your Red ID number in the email. No phone number available at this time. After knowing the reason for a denial, email Cuyamaca.Transfer@gcccd.edu so that we can guide you with your appeal process.

Q: With the COVID-19 situation will the appeal deadline be extended? A: Yes for SDSU, there is no time frame students must submit the appeal. No for CSUSM, student has 15 days to appeal since the date of denial. UCs are still rolling out admissions notifications. Stay tuned for more information on the UCs.

● SDSU has indicated they have not set a final date for appeals but will not hold students to the 30 day deadline. Work with a Counselor if need be.

● Each campus has their own appeals process. If you have questions about other CSUs please check your portal or contact their Admissions Office.

Q: I have not heard from any of the UCs I have applied to, including UCSD. Did I do something wrong?

A: Hang tight the UCs will release transfer admissions information in mid-late April. Click here for timeline by UC campus: <https://admission.universityofcalifornia.edu/counselors/files/campus-admission-notification-deadlines-2020.pdf>

Q: When will I hear from Cal State San Marcos? A: CSUSM is still in the process of releasing information. Check your regular email inbox, spam, and the portal for more information as admissions notifications and other information is released.

Q: If I get denied from Cal State San Marcos can I appeal? A: Yes. CSUSM is maintaining their 15 day appeal deadline. Follow the directions in the student portal for filing an appeal with CSUSM, here is more info: <https://www.csusm.edu/admissions/how-to-apply/appeal-process.html>

Q: When will I hear from other CSU campuses if I have not already? A: All CSUs are on their own timelines for releasing admissions decisions. Check your regular email inbox, spam, and the portal for more information as admissions notifications and other information is released.

ADDITIONAL TRANSFER ITEMS Q: How do I request transcripts? A: You can request transcripts through your WebAdvisor or <https://www.cuyamaca.edu/services/admissions/transcript-requests.aspx> Cuyamaca submits transcripts bi-weekly, please submit your transcript request as soon as possible.
